FROM THE DESK OF PASTOR CHRIS

Dear Cursillistas,

This June/July will be my last months serving on Secretariat. For those new to Cursillo, as part of the policy, each President has the option to have their own Pastor serve. There is absolutely nothing negative about this change.

I have enjoyed my term of service and pray for our continued leadership. We have done a lot on Secretariat over these two short years. Our meetings are efficient and productive. We have added a Hispanic ministry and kept Cursillo out of the fray of a troubled times in our synods. My calling by God was to keep Cursillo safe from the stuff going on around us and feel that goal was reached. We are a four day movement with fifteen talks and five meditations. As healing and change evolves through our church bodies, Cursillo stands as a pillar of light to equip the saints and unite the church.

The Church is and always has been the focus of Christ's work on earth. It is not "the people" as so often characterized, but the body of Christ as it is led and directed by those God has placed in authority and giftedness. "Each person doing his/her part as it builds itself up in love." Cursillo trains those members to go back and build up the church, its leadership and take his/her place as God has ordained. I pray in the years to come Cursillo will continue to follow in its decree and mission. I pray it holds its doctrine closely and focuses on its function which is to assist the church in equipping its saints for service in building up the church. And yes, the church is the building as well! Even Paul met in a house and I'm sure he fixed that window after the man fell out of it while he was preached! (I heard he formed a committee, drew up policies on window sitting, placed rails on every window and had a vote taken on sermon lengths.) :)

As I pass the torch to the next Spiritual leader, may God clothe him with wisdom and strength, the gift of discernment, and the spirit of unity. May God richly bless Lutheran Cursillo of Southern California and its ministry to Christ's church, now and forever. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you in this capacity and I look forward to what new place God leads me to serve!

In His Service,

Pastor Chris Deknatel

THOUGHTS FROM THE TRAINER....

Let me tell you how excited we are that we have a new Spanish Cursillo starting. We are all witnessing this CLE #1 get started. And they are well underway.

First of all I must say what a wonderful job Manny and Miriam have done in getting this movement started. Talk about a labor of love. Not only did they have to do the regular Rector/Rectora stuff. But having to translate it all. Wow. What an undertaking.

I call this a true gift. Who doesn't like gifts? I know I do. I think back to Pastor Carl Zimmerman's meditation "The Gift". If you have not heard it, I will just give you a little snippet. As a child he could not wait for Christmas and the gift he would get from his aunt. It was always something wonderful. And he knew the gift under the tree one-year was a truck. Oh he wanted that truck. I even think he was still drooling about this truck giving this meditation. Anyways, what he got was NOT the truck. Instead, his aunt gave him a very special box, and in it was an old gold coin. Now tell me a ten years old didn't just jump up and down for that. Well to make a long story short, years later he found that coin in a drawer of his dresser, and thought about that meaning of the coin and what it meant to his aunt to give it to him. He learned to appreciate the gift, which is now treasured and loved.

Well these Cursillo weekends are a gift. This gift is thought out; Hand made with hours of labor given to it; Packaged and wrapped with a huge bow. Now, we are very excited to give it to our recipient and now we wait. O.K.....they are opening the package. Oh, they seem excited, yes, I think they like it. They are trying it on for size. Yes, I think it is a good fit. Hurray, they liked it. Wow, all our hard work has paid off.

Now, I can move on to the next gift. Stop right here! You are still not finished. Cursillo is not one of these gifts that you can give and be done with. Your work is not finished.

What! They liked it. They are smiling. But what you don't see is what happens to the gift when they get home. Is that gift being shared at their church? Are they getting into groupings? Are they going to Ultreyas? Or did that wonderful gift that you thought was a perfect gift, end up in that drawer and not to be looked at for several months, years, or never again.

When you sponsor someone, your job is not done just because the weekend is over. You have heard me say before that some of our pilgrims are so overwhelmed from a weekend they don't know what to do. You must help keep the fire burning from the weekend. Not that you hound them about groupings on your drive home from the weekend. But it's your responsibility to make sure your pilgrim you have sponsored are getting into a grouping, and that you bring them to an Ultreya. I can't tell you how low our attendance has been in our Ultreyas. We are 4,000 strong and we have more seats than people to fill them. Ultreyas are a good way to help keep the Cursillo spirit alive. Besides that, there is nothing better than seeing friends from the past weekends, to visit and hug on.

Also, recommend they work a weekend. I know we have 3 weekends going on this time. And with a movement that has had 4,000 go through, we still had trouble filling teams for these weekends. Are we doing our job? A big part of the gift of Cursillo is coming back to work. It brings it full circle. Some don't even really understand the weekend until they come back to work.

The last thing we want is this gift of Cursillo placed in a drawer and left there to gather dust bunnies. Cursillo is the gift that needs to be treasured, and worn, and put on, and see that it still fits. It is the gift that never goes out of style.

So we have a fresh beginning with our new and fabulous Spanish Cursillo. It is very important to make sure these gifts we give, gets used and not stuffed away in that drawer, or this new movement that we have started will die.

Remember, let's keep that fire burning and not let our gifts be a forgotten one covered with dust bunnies.

IT'S TIME FOR CHANGE!

As the years pass many things change, Cursillo - 15 talks, 5 meditations, food, songs and worship, this never changes. The things that change are the faces that God uses to make the weekends work. Each weekend has a life of its own, but when you break it down they are pretty much the same. End result is the Holy Spirit firing up the hearts of all of us, to go back and be leaders in our own Lutheran Churches. Give all glory to God.

For the last 6 years I have had the blessing to serve you all as a member of the Secretariat of LCSC. I have served in the positions of Newsletter, Three Day, Vice President, President, Ultreya and Registrar. I have been blessed to see from many different sides how this community works. By the worlds standards, these weekends should have never worked. But by the grace of God, each and everyone have and will continue to work as long as we know it's not us, it's God that makes them work.

Cursillo is not our church! It's a tool, to use to strengthen our Lutheran churches. One thing that has always stuck with me is: If you are not working and supporting your home church, you should not be working or supporting Cursillo. Over the last years I have always tried to give twice the time at least to my home congregation as I do to Cursillo. Sometimes this means that there was not enough time spent with my family, which I regret. As my second term comes to an end, I will step down and look to see what God has in store for me. I will be enjoying my family to the most. I'm definitely not leaving Cursillo, just making room for the new leaders to step up and experience the joy of leading this movement. If the same ones are always in charge, how will others ever have the chance to grow?

Don't plan to get rid of me to easy. I plan to continue to support the Secretariat and continue on some projects that are in the works. So I ask you to join me daily as I pray for our Lutheran churches and Lutheran Cursillo of Southern California. Also, that God would use each and every one of us to make a change for good in this world, to allow little bits of heaven to break into our lives each & every day by the Grace of God. Come Holy Spirit fill the hearts of your faithful....

Gordon Gertner
LCSC Registrar

As you may have already heard, Lutheran Cursillo of Southern California is in the midst of starting a Spanish speaking Lutheran Cursillo. Cursillo Luterano en Espanol, CLE # 1 is scheduled for June 30 – July 3, 2011. This first scheduled weekend will be a co-ed weekend for pilgrims, as well as the team. We pray this will be the humble beginnings of a ministry that will mirror the success and growth paths, of LCSC. It is our hope and dream that in the future we will have consecutive men's and women's weekends.

So what does this all mean for us? Well, first and foremost, we believe, God has called us to expand our Cursillo ministry, to take a yet another journey, to step outside of what has become our comfort zone in our Cursillo ministry. This journey will welcome a new culture, a new community and perhaps reshape to some extent our own style of worship as new sounds and music is introduced.

Let me say, the concept of a Spanish Speaking Cursillo, has long been planted in the hearts minds, of most Spanish speaking Cursillistas. Over time, Spanish speaking individuals, have wrestled with the same questions; Why don't we have a Spanish Speaking Cursillo? Would our Spanish speaking congregations benefit from the Lutheran Cursillo experience? These and similar questions have only recently been expressed collectively and it was at this point, we all knew it was time to stop asking why and say, Why not? So today with joyous anticipation and to be honest somewhat anxious, we stand at the threshold of that blossoming ministry we are calling CLE #1.

So what do we need from the Community at large? We ask for your support and your prayers. Pray for the financial and particularly, the people resources needed to come together and make this happen. Pray for the Core Team that is being assembled that they will be granted the wisdom to embrace the changes needed to make this ministry a success. Pray for the pilgrims that will be called to attend this first weekend. Pray this pilgrims be the leaders that can take ownership for this ministry to move it forward.

Lastly, we are grateful to the LCSC Secretariat that has embraced this new and exciting ministry not only in words but with forethought, hard work and financial sponsorship.

God's Peace,
Manny Valdez & Miriam Guthary

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am thankful for the chance to share a little about how Cursillo has been such a blessing to myself and my family. My wife, Colleen and I have been active in our home church for years but I can honestly say I didn't serve joyfully but more out of a sense of obligation. When we serve in a FOG (fear obligation guilt), we are not honoring our heavenly father. But I am thankful for my Cursillo experience which took serving my Lord from my head to my heart.

I've thought a lot about it over these last six years of working Cursillo, and a few things I've come to believe about what make the Cursillo method so successful are:

- We continually invite the Holy Spirit to be present.
- That the weekend is surrounded on all sides by prayer.
- We are doing our level best to serve as Christ would have us serve.
- We are part of a fellowship that is trusting in God. He goes out in front of us to assure success.

This movement has so richly blessed me. I have made so many wonderful friends and have been mentored by such Godly people. I am indeed blessed.

The vision God has given me for LC134 is two fold. First, to remind the men just how much God loves them. Second, to encourage the men to be bold and joyful as they lead in their families, churches and communities.

Scott Willard

Cursillo continues to be a blessing in my life and also in my husband Paul's. Each weekend spent serving has gifted us with life and faith lessons. Paul has faced open heart surgery, and a second surgery for an aortic aneurysm. He was recently hospitalized for arrhythmia. Knowing that we belong to the Lord has given us comfort, hope and strength in our lives.

The last 2 years I have faced some challenges where I have had to lean on the Lord even more. I started a new job, which requires me to work on the weekends and varying hours during the week, after being self-employed for 28 years. At first, I was not able to attend Sunday morning worship due to scheduling. That was very difficult as I relish the time in the Lord's house and fellowshiping with others. I found my prayer life expanding even more than before, and in doing that, new things being revealed. I slowly realized that my not being able to serve on various church activities was OK. It was alright for me to come and rest in the Lord and not fret because I was not able to serve as I would have liked.

In time, I was able to persuade my manager to allow me to attend Sunday morning services. My worship time is extra special to me now. Paul and I also made the difficult decision to leave our church and become charter members of a new community, Radiant Church. Small but meaningful apostolic opportunities continue to allow me to share my faith, especially in my work environment.

The gift of Cursillo is one that I believe can truly improve and strengthen our relationship with our Lord. The experience of community and serving with our sisters and brothers in Christ also empowers us to reconnect to a world that needs Christ. Learning to follow God's will and listen to His prompting encourages us to lead in ministries and service as we are led.

Being called to be the Rectora for LC135 is an honor and a privilege. I continue to trust in the Lord and understand that His timing and His will is always perfect. Jesus promises love, healing and peace with God, not the end of labor. To live a Christian life is to realize that life is not lived in our own strength but through God's power.

Jesus yearns for us to come to him in all aspects of our lives. That wonderful invitation is one that I hope to encourage and reinforce in all of us at LC135 as He equips us for His service.

Blessings,

Ingrid Ostrem-Nosek

CANDIDATES FOR THE SECRETARIAT

MARTY HENTE

I have spent most of my life in various service to our Lord. My life of service began during my high school years where I served as an officer of my local and district youth group. During my college years, I found the opportunity to serve through a Lutheran college organization where I was elected to the national governing board. My professional life was spent in public service, I am currently serving in a volunteer position for the city in which I reside, and after experiencing Cursillo during LC 118, I have served in various positions on 6 teams. I believe I have organizational skills that could be an addition to the Secretariat.

Marty Hente - W1MJH (Amateur Radio License)
Deputy Director of the Culver City Amateur Radio Emergency Service
Fleet/Transportation Manager for the Culver City Community Emergency Response Team
Instructor for the Culver City Emergency Response Team

ROBIN HILL

My wife and I attended our pilgrim weekends October 2006. Since then we have been richly blessed by serving many weekends. I truly believe that Cursillo is vital to the renewal of the Lutheran Church.

Throughout the years of working full-time my responsibility was the construction and maintenance of audio and visual equipment. My wife and I worship at Christ Lutheran Church, West Covina where I am now the trouble-shooter for the Technology Team, serve on the church council and am the church treasurer. During the winter months we assist at the winter shelters of the East San Gabriel Valley Coalition for the homeless.

The mission of Lutheran Cursillo, Southern California, is to raise up leaders in each of our home congregations. Elected to serve, or not, I will continue to give all that I have to this community of believers - my extended family - in order to fulfill that mission.

CAROL LAVACHE (Incumbent)

I am seeking a continuation of servitude in growing God's kingdom.

JANET MALONE

I attended Lutheran Cursillo #55. I have worked many Cursillo weekends since then in many different capacities. I enjoy giving back to the pilgrims just a bit of what the Lord has given me through Cursillo.

I have been a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Norwalk, CA since 1986. I have served in many areas at Trinity including: Sunday School teacher, Confirmation teacher, youth helper, council member and various church boards. I am also a group leader for the Woman of Faith Conference held in Anaheim, CA every September and have been part of a prayer team. I have been able to use those gifts that God has given me in these ways in my church.

Cursillo is close to my heart and I feel the Lord is leading me to move forward and to use those gifts by serving on the Secretariat of Lutheran Cursillo.

Your vote counts! PRAY! VOTE!

Voting closes at the beginning of the LC135 Women's Clausura, on 7/17.

The votes will be tallied and the results will be announced at the Clausura.
